

Curso de Economia Clínica

Professor Convidado: Franz Porzsolt, Ph.D, Universidade de Ulm, Alemanha

Horário: 16:00 às 19:00h

Local : Anfiteatro Aluisio de Paula
Hospital Universitário Antônio Pedro
Rua Marquês do Paraná, 303. Niterói-RJ

Aulas em Inglês

Segunda 02.07.12

Application of the Six Steps of Evidence-Based Medicine in Health Care Service and Management

Professional faking in treatment studies (PROFITS)

Terça 03.07.12

Economic Principles in Healthcare

Mankiw's 10 principles of economics
Application of Mankiw's principles to healthcare

Principles Underlying Clinical Economics (CE)

Einstein's counting rule and gut feelings
The complexity-knowledge-diagram
The mushroom forey rule
From patient's value to society's benefit

Theory of the CE-Concept

Psychological aspects
Placebo and placebo effects
Basic information
Waber experiment and the power of information
How to assess quality of life
Graphical lecture
Wilsede Workshop Consensus indicators of well-being in old-old patients with severe dementia
Perceived safety
In members of a self-help group
In readers of a drug information leaflet
Patient preferences
Meta-analysis
The problem of direct assessment
Conjoint and discrete choice analyses

Quarta 04.07.12

Biostatistical aspects
Challenging the concept of EBM
Paradoxes in detection and treatment
Lead time bias
Length bias
More instead of earlier diagnoses
Simpson's paradoxon
Will Roger's phenomenon
Confirmation Based Medicine
Differences of clinical and outcomes research
Goal definition and goal attainment (General Medicine)
Fading of reported effectiveness
Validity of HTA reports

Quinta 05.07.12

Economical aspects
Economic analyses
Cost- minimization analysis
Cost-effectiveness analysis (ICER)
Cost-utility analysis
Cost-benefit analysis

Ethical aspects
Knowledge framing – the power of information
Ethical and empirical limitations of randomization
Medical professionalism and commercialization of medicine I + II

Practice of the CE-Concept

The Basic Benefit Basket (BBB)
The need
The structure
Critical appraisal of progress in healthcare
Reduced incidence of breast cancer in the elderly
Overdiagnosis and pseudodisease
Pseudodiseases and harmful consequences (cerebral aneurism)
Innovation in healthcare
Quantitative assessment of innovations in healthcare provision
Costs of evidence-based innovations
Decisions supported by clinical economics
Validity-Effectiveness- Cost Diagram

Organização: Prof^a. Tania Thomaz
Dr. Thiago Constancio

Inscrições gratuitas pelos sites:

www.uff.br/cedoc www.medportal.com.br

